

Mums Raising Teenage Boys

One night seminar

As the primary female role model in a boy's life, mothers play an important role in the development of their son's identity, including their ability to be nurturing. For teenage boys, this ongoing relationship they have with their mother has long term implications. This in turn affects how they relate to others, particularly to girls and women. This seminar covers practical ways to improve and maintain a positive and rewarding relationship with your teenage son.

During this seminar you will explore:

- The importance of the mother-son relationship
- What boys need from their mums
- Developmental issues affecting your teenage son
- Understanding your son's world and the other influences on him
- The importance of negotiating with your son
- How to give your son appropriate freedom as well as clear boundaries
